

CAPTIVATING, COLORFUL – THE CAROLINAS

From the coast, to the mountains, to the heartland, the Carolinas breathe with excitement, unique beauty and a heritage and culture as rich as any in the country. With 82 hotel properties in North Carolina and 38 in South Carolina, Marriott can help you get the most from your visit to this region of the country. Whether you're traveling on business or leisure, Marriott has a full-service hotel or extended stay suite, that will put you where you want to be—the Carolinas—and all that this beautiful region has to offer.

The Coast

Combine the coasts of North and South Carolina and you end up with 500 miles of warm sunshine, sugary white sand, hundreds of championship golf courses and more scenic beauty than you can imagine. In the South there's Myrtle Beach, one of the top domestic tourist destinations in the continental United States. Farther down the coast lies historic downtown Charleston. If you're a golfer, Charleston is the place to be, with 300 courses in this one area. Farther South are the resort beaches and the Low Country's Barrier Islands, containing some of the most luxurious resort getaways in the world. The Outer Banks of North Carolina boast scenic beaches, beautiful dunes and Kitty Hawk, where the Wright Brothers made the first powered airplane flight.

The Heartland

Carolina's heartland is also the center for business in the two states. The industrial center of South Carolina is there. So is Columbia, the state's capital where the University of South Carolina is located. In North Carolina, Research Triangle Park anchors a triangle of cities—Raleigh, Durham and Chapel Hill—and a triangle of Universities—Duke, University of North Carolina Chapel Hill and North Carolina State. In all, the park has more than 130 R&D companies inside its 7,000-acre boundaries. That makes it the largest research park in the country. With companies such as Glaxo Smith-Kline, IBM, Cisco, Sony Ericsson and hundreds of others located in the heartland, it's easy to see why business people from all over the world travel to the Carolinas on a regular basis.

The Foothills and the Mountains

Fishing, hiking, backpacking, canoeing and rafting are all a part of the mountainous terrain in the western part of the Carolinas. In the northwest of North Carolina, the Blue Ridge Parkway offers one of the most scenic drives in all of the country. At the foothill lies the Great Smoky Mountains National Park. Tour the mountains on the Great Smoky Railway or slowly meander down a river on a tube or raft. Greenville South Carolina rests at the base of the incredible Blue Ridge Mountains, named for the blue haze that hovers around the peaks. Lakes, rivers, waterfalls and hiking should be a big part of any outing in this area while the city of Greenville serves up hundreds of restaurants, exciting night life, and dozens of sightseeing opportunities, museums and musical events.
